

Budget calculators ready: calculate how the budget affected you.

On 16th March 2005 the Chancellor delivered this years Budget.

Our Budget Special Section contains key information relating to the budget and will continue to be updated as more information surfaces from the detail.

For now, our budget effect calculators are now updated with the tax tables for 2005/2006.

Both permanent employees and contractors can calculate the effect on their income due to the changes in income tax and national insurance thresholds.

In fact, all calculators for both contractors and permanent employees can be used with any selection of tax tables from the past 5 years by utilising the advanced details feature.
